

Lesser Long Eared Bat ~
Nyctophilus geoffroyi

Lesser Long-eared bats are found in Australia. They hunt near the ground catching flying insects in flight or snatching insects off the ground or leaves. This species roosts in hollows and fissures in old trees, under bark, in old fairy marten nests, and in occasionally in caves or buildings.

