

Tomes's Sword-nosed Bat ~
Lonchorhina aurita

Tomes's Sword-nosed Bats are found in Central and South America. They are usually found in mature, evergreen forest, occasionally deciduous forest and agricultural areas. This bat is an aerial and gleaning insectivore, but it occasionally consumes fruits.

